

Saving water is always in season!

Every day millions of gallons of water are used to wash towels that have only been used once.

Santa Fe is a high desert community with a limited water supply. Please leave a light water footprint while visiting the water conscious City Different.

We are proud to be a waterwise lodging establishment.

savewatersantafe.com

Have a Waterwise Stay!

Towels left hanging tell us you wish to reuse them.

Towels on the floor will be washed.